PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Emeriti, Retired Librarians, & Spouses:

The Autumn quarter was my first as President of the Emeriti Association. It is a demanding task, but a collection of committed Board Members and other volunteers have continued to make our activities successful.

We look forward to participating in two important anniversaries during 2019: In May 2019 UCLA’s Centennial will commence a year of activities, and the Emeriti/Retirees Relations Center will celebrate its 50th anniversary.

The Association remains sufficiently solvent that the Board of the Emeriti Association could make a contribution of $8,000 to the Faculty Center for its modernization program. The Association has long been a strong supporter of the Faculty Center and we are happy to help secure its stability and improve its attractiveness.

Our major event this fall was the November 14 Dinner at the Faculty Center. It was the largest dinner in our history with 144 members and guests enrolled. (Unhappily the Malibu-Woolsey fires and the consequent traffic gridlock kept some guests from reaching campus, but it still was the largest Emeriti Dinner ever!). The Main Dining Room was divided into a bar with open space for the guests to mingle at a congenial hour-long reception, and a dining area with 18 tables. After a dinner of great food, the special attraction of the evening Professor Teofilo Ruiz, Wellman Distinguished Professor of Medieval History, provided “An Introduction to Cuban History: From Colony to Revolution.”

Our After-Lunch events, offered jointly with the Retirees’ Association, continue to be popular. In October members of the Plato Society gave to over fifty of our Emeriti and Retirees an informative presentation about this vibrant community of lifelong learning. In December Professor Rod Kiewiet (Cal Tech) spoke on the recent mid-term elections. January’s jazz program presented by graduate students in the world-renowned Herbie Hancock Jazz Ensemble conducted under the auspices of the Council of University of California Emeriti Associations (CUCEA) and used it to turn heads of the administration when it showed the enormous contributions of the Emeriti to the UC mission. Our cumulative contributions are high enough to constitute the equivalent an 11th campus for the University, and at no cost.

John will tell us of the genesis of the idea, its formulation, the enormously positive response of the administration and of the current survey.

This report is important to all of us as illustration of the role of imagination and communication in our affairs. He indeed turned a competent report, the frog, into a handsome prince!

A Virtual Eleventh Campus: An Inventory of University of California Emeriti Activity During 2012–2015 can be found at http://cucea.ucsd.edu/documents/AVirtualEleventhCampus.pdf

The meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 20, 2019, at the UCLA Faculty Center. The room will be announced in the lobby. The reception will begin at 4:45 p.m. Dinner begins at 6:00 p.m.

The Association’s Distinguished Service Award will be presented to Leena Löfstedt.

at UCLA was sensational. Additional After-Lunch talks will be announced elsewhere in this Newsletter.

Since the Association receives occasional requests for volunteers to serve as Mentors for undergraduates or to serve on review committees for undergraduate awards, the Board has established a Mentoring Committee under the leadership of Dick Weiss (Chemistry) to respond to such requests. We have solicited volunteers and will continue to do so to establish a database to respond to future requests.

The Board has also launched a revised and improved Web-Page under the leadership of our new Web Content Master Katalin Radics. Kati will reorganize the Web-Page to make it more transparent and try to ensure that the material is kept up-to-date.

We have now entered 2019 – UCLA’s Centennial. I wish you all a wonderful New Year.

Ronald Mellor, President

UPCOMING AFTER-LUNCH PROGRAMS

After-lunch programs for winter 2019 will be held on Thursdays at the Faculty Center, 1:00-3:00 p.m. A sign indicating the room will be on the poster in the lobby. Coffee, tea, and cookies are available at 1:00 p.m.; the program begins at 1:30.

March 7
We are excited to announce that our speaker for the March after-lunch program will be Susan Orlean, the author of the recent highly acclaimed “biography” of the Los Angeles Public Library. Ms. Orlean’s book has received rave reviews in the New York Times, LA Times, and in countless other publications. This engaging story has been featured on talk shows and we can thank Victoria Steele for having landed this wonderful speaker.

April 11
Our April after-lunch speaker will be George Baker, Professor of Art History at UCLA. George Baker is a renowned art history scholar and he will likely speak about the remarkable story of the finding and acquisition of an original Picasso painting for UCLA. According to Victoria Steele, Professor Baker is a remarkable speaker who could give an exciting talk on any number of topics.

FACULTY CENTER NEWS

The December 13, 2018, Faculty Club membership meeting began with a report of the remarkable improvement in faculty club finances since summer 2017. At that time the FC had suffered its seventh straight year of losing money and consequently its reserves were nearly depleted.

The turnaround began then (just in time) with the result of a profit of over $200,000 for the year ended June 30, 2018. This improvement came about from new efficiencies and decreased expenses including curtailment of employee hours. This curtailment took advantage of the University of California rule which permits adjustments for seasonal influences. As we all know, the summer months are slow.

Even with this fiscal improvement President Belinda Tucker explained that some financial challenges remain. For example the next union contract will likely increase expenses by $100,000 a year.

The June 2018 framework agreement between the Faculty Center and UCLA is on track to be completed next month.

The meeting was opened to questions and there was a concern about the drop in the number of tables in the Playa Lounge which resulted in occasions when no tables were free.

Another concern was that future faculty club renovation should keep in mind the architectural integrity of the original building. Belinda Tucker replied that the firm hired by the university for the renovation was known for expertise in mid-century architecture.

SEARCH FOR NEW ERRC DIRECTOR

Vice Chancellor Mike Levine’s office has posted the position and applications have arrived. A Search Committee reviewed the applications in December with interviews beginning in January.

The search committee is chaired by Vice Chancellor Levine with Erika Chau (Executive Director of Academic Personnel), Sue Abeles (UCLARA), and Ron Mellor (Emeriti Association) serving as members along with a faculty member not yet announced at press time.

The Vice Chancellor’s goal is to have a new Director in place by the end of March so that there can be a month for transition before Sue Barnes retires at the end of April.

JAZZ IN JANUARY

Emeriti Association, UCLA (Retiree’s Association), and Faculty Women’s Club members enjoyed a terrific program of jazz put on by UCLA students at the Faculty Center on January 10, 2019.

The UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music offers a master’s degree in jazz performance in conjunction with the Herbie Hancock Institute of Jazz Performance at UCLA and relies on a strong connection between great jazz artists and talented young musicians.

In addition to presenting a number of major concerts and community outreach programs across the U.S. and beyond, students lead master classes in public and high schools and provide individual instruction for aspiring young musicians.

Ensemble members were introduced by program director Daniel Seeff. They were Paul Cornish, piano (Houston, TX); Emma Dayhuff, bass (Bozeman, MT); Rony Eytan, harmonica (Jerusalem, Israel); Chris Lewis, tenor saxophone (Philadelphia, PA); Aidan Lombard, trumpet (Chicago, IL); Lenard Simpson, alto saxophonist (Milwaukee, WI); and Malachi Whitson, drums (Richmond, CA).

Attendees were delighted with the music. Some pieces began with a jazz standard and then progressed into talented improvisations. Throughout the program audience members were able to ask questions and learn more about what it means to be a jazz musician. We also learned that the instruments in each cohort change depending on who applies for the institute. For example, this is the first time a harmonica has been included in the ensemble.

As part of UCLA’s annual True Bruin Welcome, more than 1,000 students gathered to form a giant human number 100 that spanned the length of the intramural field. street as Ernest Hemingway. He became a teen-aged revolutionary who was jailed for insubordination, and emigrated in 1962 to work as a taxi driver in New York before attending City College and Princeton University.

After the formal (or informal) presentation, Teo continued to answer numerous questions while moving through the tables. The assembled emeriti and guests could see how Teo is one of the most popular teachers at UCLA with 300-400 students in his lecture courses.

The Autumn Emeriti dinner was festive evening with good fellowship and intellectual stimulation, with efficient service in a pleasant venue.

For those who missed it (or earlier Dinner lectures) an audio recording is available on the EA Webpage at https://archive.org/details/Ruiz111418EA. A video recording by Michael Heafey of UCLARA will also be posted.

EMERITI ASSOCIATION AWARD NOMINATIONS SOUGHT

The Emeriti Association makes its own awards and appreciates nominations from many sources.

The Emeritus of the Year Award is made annually and recognizes the special contributions of a UCLA Emeritus or Emerita whose talents and energies continue to benefit the University and the Association.

The Lifetime Achievement Award may not be made every year but is presented from time to time when a deserving candidate has been nominated. This award honors a UCLA Emeritus or Emerita who has demonstrated continuous, sustained outstanding service to benefit the University and the Association—especially service rendered after retirement. It was presented to Charles E. Young as part of the Association’s 50th anniversary celebration in fall, 2017.

Nominations may be made by the potential awardee, other retired or active faculty members, or department chairs or deans.

The nomination letter should include the candidate’s name, department prior to retirement at UCLA, and a description of the candidate’s contributions to the University and the Emeriti Association. Other supporting documentation such as CVs or one additional supporting letter may be submitted.

Deadline for the Emeritus of the Year and Lifetime Achievement Award is March 8, 2018.

Nominations for the Emeritus of the Year and Lifetime Achievement Award may be submitted by email to emeriti@errc.ucla.edu or by usps mail: Emeriti Association Nomination Committee, UCLA Emeriti/Retirees Relations Center, 1116 Rolfe Hall, Box 951437 Los Angeles, CA 90095.

The awardees will be honored at the May 8, 2019 Spring Dinner.

If you have any questions regarding the eligibility or nomination procedure for the Emeriti Association Awards, please contact Edwin Cooper at: cooper@mednet.ucla.edu.

HONORING LEENA LÖFSTEDT

The UCLA Emeriti Association bestows our Distinguished Service Award on one of our members who has made an extraordinary contribution to our community. This year we will honor Dr. Leena Löststedt for her generous and selfless devotion to the association.

Leena is a distinguished scholar of Romance philology and an Associate of the Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies where she gave a workshop in November on “Thomas Becket and Henry II: Friends who Became Enemies?”

Leena joined the Association as the widow of Professor Bengt Löfstedt of the Classics department. After Bengt’s passing in 2004, Leena became an active member and contributed whenever called upon to help with hospitality, newsletter mailings, etc. – in short the volunteer activities that make this organization work.

For several years she had been proposed for the DSA, but she is usually in Europe visiting her four children or giving scholarly papers when we give awards at our Spring meeting. But, since the Executive Board learned that she may be relocating to her native Helsinki, we decided to have a special presentation to Leena at our winter dinner on February 20.

Leena Löststedt could well be honored by others for her scholarly contributions in medieval French language, literature, and law, but the Association’s Distinguished Service Award will recognize her loyalty to the UCLA retirement community and her warm friendship to our members. We hope that her friends will join us in honoring her on February 20.

Edwin L. Cooper, president-elect, was recently presented with an ISDCI Honorary Award “in recognition of his exemplary career, dedicated to the advancement of developmental and comparative immunology around the world. This is presented to E.L. Cooper on the occasion of the XIVth International Congress of the International Society for Developmental and Comparative Immunology, convened in Santa Fe, New Mexico, June 2018.” During this congress, Edwin also signed copies of the 2018 revision of his book Advances in Comparative Immunology, first published in 1976 by Prentice Hall.

Edwin received a similar award at the second international congress of ISDCI, which he organized at UCLA, August 1983. In conjunction with that meeting, he was presented with a Mayor’s Certificate of Appreciation, “for outstanding efforts and accomplishments, which have been a great benefit to our community, especially the City of Los Angeles. Your community spirit and interest have helped make our city a better place in which to live, and have greatly assisted me in conducting the affairs of this city. [signed] Tom Bradley, August 18, 1983.”

Prof. Cooper also received the Edward A. Dickson Emeriti Professorship Award “in recognition of extraordinary research, scholarly work, teaching, and educational service since retirement. May 11, 2016. [signed] Carol Goldberg, Vice Chancellor.”

In rankings published last August by Washington Monthly, UCLA was No. 2 among U.S. public universities for its contributions to society.

FWC MEMBERS NOW ATTEND EA EVENTS

Editor’s note: As the representative of the UCLA Faculty Women’s Club, Carol Betti has been present at Emeriti Association board meetings when discussions about mutual interests such as Faculty Center amenities and prices and programming have occurred. She also issued invitations for board members (some of whom are also members of the FWC) to attend her organization’s programs.

An invitation to the December 6th Emeriti Association after-lunch program was extended to the Faculty Women’s Club members. As two strong supporting organizations of the Faculty Center, it is hoped that more such joint events will occur in the future. [Note: FWC members also attended the January jazz program.]

The FWC was a founding member of the Faculty Club and is now celebrating its Centennial. The Men’s Faculty Association and the Association of Academic Women were two other founding organizations of the Faculty Center. The Association of Academic Women no longer exists. The Men’s Faculty Club mantle has been inherited by the Emeriti Association. Thus, it is to our mutual benefit to work together and share in our commitment to the enhancement of member activities for both organizations and the continued support of our Faculty Center.

Carol Betti, FWC Representative

EMERITI AWARDS

Nominations for the various Emeriti Awards have been received at press time and the selection committees are evaluating the dossiers.

The Constantine Panunzio Distinguished Emeriti Award is given for outstanding scholarly work and/or educational service. The nominees (due in December, 2018) were examined first by an internal UCLA committee which then forwarded one nominee to a systemwide selection committee chaired by Vice-Chancellor Mike Levine. The selection committee chooses one or more awardees in March.

The Edward Dickson nominations for outstanding research, teaching or service by UCLA faculty emeriti are normally due at the ERRC in January and the selection committee will make its decision in February. There can be several awards – there were three in 2018.

The Carole Goldberg award is for outstanding service by an emerita/emeritus. Nominations are normally due in January and the selection committee will make its decision in February.

CUCEA UPDATE

Our representative to the Council of University of California Emeriti Associations (CUCEA) Dan Mitchell shared a lengthy summary of the October 2018 meetings of CUCRA-CUCEA that he and President Ron Mellor attended in Berkeley.

Dan’s notes are lengthy. Anyone interested in a copy (along with an addition from Faculty Retirement Liaison David Lopez) are welcome to request it from editor Diane Childs (diane childs@ucla.edu).

Invitations will be going out to Emeriti Association Members with artwork by this year’s Featured Artist, along with an opportunity to support this cherished tradition.

Then, the doors of the California Room will be thrown open at 11:00am to 4:00pm to welcome all our guests—friends, family and colleagues—to enjoy the display. Around 2:30 you will have a chance to toast the artists with “a bit of the bubbly”, and a buffet of hors d’oeuvres, fruit and sweets will be waiting on the patio.

In all, a fine way to spend a Tuesday afternoon.
