- 5. Guest Speakers
  - a. Martin Brennan and Lisa Moske of the library: Presented a discussion of UCLA's efforts to create a written library rights focused on an open research culture, "Open UCLA". Since 2013 UC created "open access" so that all published articles by UCLA faculty members were in open access. For books, the library can help find a way to get rights reversion for a book. Authors Alliance can help make the revision and then the book will reside in the Hathi Trust Digital Library. The author has to fill out a form to make the Text available.
  - b. Gerry Kominski, Academic Senate representative to the Health Benefits Committee, discussing the recent change to the health benefits plans offered by the University. There is one new program, MediCare Choice Plan, which has no initial cost and co-payments to a max of $1500 per year out of pocket. This plan is MediCare only and does not cover any non-MediCare expenses. A brisk discussion ensued with pros and cons discussed.
